Circular Letter.

L. D. 22-C-188.

Headquarters, Military District No.1,
London, Ont., June 5th, 1916.

From - A. A. G., M. D. No. 1,
London, Ont.

To - O. C. 118th Overseas Battalion, C. E. F.,
London, Ont.

Lieut. T. W. Colley.

I am directed to inform you that the marginally named officer has been detailed for duty as Inspector of Pay Accounts and Records, C.E.F., for M. D. No. 1, with Headquarters at London, Ontario.

2. He is to be given every facility to carry out his work, and he is to have access to all Regimental

London, Ont., November 4th, 1916.

From A. A. G., M. D. No. 1,

London, Ont.

To O.C. 118th Os. Battalion, C.E.F.,

London, Ont.

Major G. W. Nelson.

The marginally named officer will report to you next week for the purpose of assisting and advising in your organization, administration, interior economy and training. At the completion of his tour of duty he is instructed to submit a report covering all phases of your work, for the information of the O.A. the District.

2. Advice and assistance without inspection is futile, therefore, please render him every possible facility in the performance of his duties.

3. It should be noted that administrative parades, such as pay parades, examination by medical officers, etc., should not interfere with the training syllabus, neither should duties that can be performed at other times be allowed to interfere. The Staff Officer attached to your battalion is authorized to set aside the syllabus for one day during his tour of duty and set ^{the} syllabus himself for that day in order that he may get a better view of your battalion at work.

4. He is to be attached to your officers' mess.

Walter James Brown
Lieut.-Colonel,
A/A.A.G., M. D. No. 1.
